*Apprentice allowance. Time, 13, 26th, 52nd, 1:05th.
Winner—B. f. by Emperor of Norfolk—Miss Baldwin.
Went to post at 2:10. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Alzura acted kindly at the post and, getting off well, ran into the lead after the first quarter had been run, holding it to the end and won as her rider pleased. Small Jack began slowly, but finished fast and strongly. Braw Lad was tiring at the end. Harry Herenden does not seem to relish muddy or slow going. Shut Up showed early speed, but tired and fell away in the stretch.
Scratched—28061st St. Cathbert, 99; Lowell, 97; 28787th If You Dare, 116; 28768th Segurana, 102.
Overweights—Gallop, 1 pound; Barney Saal, 5.
Alzura, show, 4 to 1. Small Jack, show, 6 to 5. Braw Lad, show, 3 to 10. Harry Herenden, show, 2 to 5.

28805 SECOND RACE—1 1-2 Miles. Purse $500; $75 to second; $25 to third.

Winner—Ch. g. by Fonso—Miss Nannie.
Went to post at 2:40. At post 7 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Frangible showed great gameness in the last quarter, but won simply because Hope could not help Little Elkin a little bit. The latter appeared all over the winner when entering the stretch, but faltered badly in the closing strides under a weak ride. Fox Bard showed well for a little over a mile, as did also Isabe. Admetus was badly outrun for the entire distance. The winner, entered for $1,000, was run up to $1,400 and bought in.
Corrected weights—Frangible, 104.
Overweights—Hosi, 1 pound.

Time, 26th, 51th, 1:20th.
Winner—B. c. by St. George—Merry Wise.
Went to post at 3:15. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Aladdin, under a vigorous ride, finished resolutely and was gradually going away at the end. Autumn Leaves ran a good race, showing much gameness in the last quarter. Harry New was cut off at the first quarter and was wedged in between Autumn Leaves and Aladdin at the last eighth post. With any kind of racing luck he would have been second. I. Samuelson ran a surprisingly good race, holding on well for five furlongs. Jack Rattin, as usual, showed his early speed, but could not carry it over five furlongs. Lucien Appleby was always outrun and appeared to dislike the going.
Aladdin, show, 7 to 20. Autumn Leaves, show, 2 to 1. Harry New, show, 1 to 4.

28807 FOURTH RACE—1 1-16 Mile. 3-year-olds and upward. The Chicago Ridge Handicap. $700 added. $100 to second; $50 to third.

Winner—Ch. c. by Pirate of Penzance—Kertile.
Went to post at 3:45. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Odnor laid within easy distance of Gonfalon until just about the stretch entry where he was called upon and ran into the lead quickly. He won with plenty to spare at the end. Argregor closed up stoutly in the last quarter but could not concede the weight to the winner. He is good now and will be a hard horse to beat hereafter. Barrack ran in much improved form over his showing of the day before. This is accounted for on account of the track drying out fast. The Lady appeared to be anchored with her impost and gradually fell away beaten after the first half had been run. Gonfalon was speedy for seven furlongs.
Scratched—28791st Valdez, 95; (28664)st St. Marcos, 110; 28789th Rolling Boer, 110; 28422nd Vulcan, 108; 28684th Searcher, 94.

Winner—B. g. by Prince Royal—Penelope.
Went to post at 4:10. At post 15 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. W. B. Gates was rated along carefully all the way and when called upon in the last eighth came away without much trouble. Do Madge had enough when a furlong out, finishing on the inside rail. Prince Blazes finished with a rush but was not good enough to beat the winner. He propped slightly in the last sixteenth and finished toward the outside rail. Omdurman tired badly in the last eighth. Pacemaker ran away a half mile to a false start and El Ghor, Give All, Frelinghuyson and Henry of Trastamare went the full course.
Scratched—28629 John Baker, 100; 28732 Woodstick, 93.

ODNOR'S HANDICAP.

The sport at Worth yesterday was replete with exciting incidents and was thoroughly enjoyed by one of the largest gatherings that has gone to the Chicago Ridge Course since its fall opening. The fifth race of the day, a dash of one mile, was fraught with more stirring happenings than are usually crowded into a full day's session. In the first place five of the field of ten ran around the full course to a false start and when the real race was on and over the judges placed a horse second that to many appeared to have finished third. The winner turned up in W. B. Gates, which was rated cleverly along in front most of the way and came away without much trouble when called upon in the last eighth. He won by two lengths. Prince Blazes propped slightly in the last sixteenth but was easily the best of the others at that and Blake was so confident he would be second that he began easing him up, the horse being well out toward the outside rail. He appeared to pass over the line about a length in front of Do Madge which finished next to the inside rail but the judges caught the latter second and signaled the number to be bulletined. There was considerable dissatisfaction expressed at the decision.

Odnor had little trouble about taking the feature event of the day, the Chicago Ridge Handicap for three-year-olds and upward at one and one-sixteenth miles. Gonfalon set a merry pace for the first seven furlongs, where Hicks urged Odnor to the front and he remained there easily thereafter, winning by three lengths from Argregor, which beat Barrack the same distance for second place. Argregor finished with determination, but was not good enough to concede the weight to the winner. Barrack, on account of the track drying out fast, ran much better than he did the day before when the going was sticky and holding. He is good now and bears consideration from now on. The Lady appeared to be anchored by her impost and never cut much of a figure in the contest after the first quarter had been run. Alzura acted kindly at the post in the first race and getting off in a good position soon took the lead from Shut Up and simply ran away from her field. She was a rank outsider in the betting. She won by four and a half lengths from Small Jack, which beat Braw Lad a half for second place. Shut Up tired and quit after a half mile had been run.

Frangible repeated his good race of the day before by taking the second race, a contest over the Derby route, in a hot tilt with Little Elkin in the last eighth. He won by a half length while Little Elkin beat Fox Bard twelve for second place. Isabey ran well for a mile and then faded away fast. Little Elkin was the best but was the victim of a bad ride, little Hope being of no help to him whatever when the pinch came.

Aladdin showed that he was a pretty fair youngster in any kind of going by taking the third race, a dash of six furlongs in a mild drive from Autumn Leaves by a length. The latter and Harry New had a hot argument for second place in the last eighth, Autumn Leaves getting the verdict on the post by a nose. Harry New was cut off slightly several times during the race or he would have finished second. Digby Bell at last found a track and field to his liking and won a clever race. It was the last race of the day, a dash of five furlongs for two-year-olds. He finished like a shot out of a gun, winning going away by a length from Pompey, which outlasted Jane Oaker by a head for second place. Duke of Connaught and Smith's Reel ran well for four furlongs.

Concerning the placing in the fifth race Judge Macfarlan said there was no diversity of opinion in the stand. Four horses were placed and all the judges promptly concurred as to the order in which they passed the winning line. It may be said that when horses finish widely apart, as was the case here, only the judges can correctly place them and they were no doubt correctly placed in this case.

Winner--Ch. c. by Kantaka--Genevieve.
Went to post at 3:10. At post 3 minutes. Start good for all but Luck and Charity. Won handily; second easily. Whiskey King outclassed the field in the going and was best to day because of it. Brunswick ran a fast and game race and is a remarkably improved colt. He will be hard to beat from now on. Champagne and Igniter finished fast. Leonora Loring tired and quit after essaying to race for the first half with the winner, the going not suiting her. Luck and Charity, a supposed crackerjack, was left at the post.
Scratched--(28748) Price, 103; 28651 King Edward, 100; 28703 Emshee, 100; 28776 City Bank, 100.

Winner--Ch. g. by Rayon d'Or--Red Girl.
Went to post at 4:00. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Redpath waited on Oread to the stretch where he drew to the front with ease. Trebor caught and beat the tiring Oread in the last stride. Both showed fine form in the going. King Lief was practically left but started after and caught up with the field in the first three furlongs, then tired badly.
Scratched--28811 Hammock, 110; 28796 Bold Knight, 108; 28743 Lee King, 105; 28596 Nanine, 101; 28275 Anecdote, 99; 28811 Gness Work, 88; 28811 Piederich, 88.

Winner--Ch. f. by Perblaise--Ondina.
Went to post at 4:30. At post 3 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second driving. Roxane, cleverly handled and in great form now, went to the front in the stretch with the utmost ease. Potente ran up to his best form, but does not particularly favor a sloppy track. Latson liked the slow track evidently, as his showing was in remarkably improved form. Belle of Lexington showed her usual speed and hung on well at the distance. Herbert lost ten lengths at the start and could never overcome the field's lead, but ran poorly as that.
Scratched--28721 Knight of Rhodes, 118; 28774 Cervera, 98; 28811 The Amazon, 92.

Winner--Ch. m. by Albert--Everbright.
Went to post at 2:12. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Brightie B., apparently served by the going, went to the front in the stretch and won as her rider pleased. Waban ran his race and was best of the others. Colonel Gay was badly ridden and taken in the deep going all the way. Nannie J. tired in the stretch. Salinda was badly handled. Sauber ran a great race from where he got off.
Overweights--Early Bird, 2 pounds; Fucino, 4.
Brightie B., show, 20 to 1. Waban, show, 8 to 5. Colonel Gay, show, evens. Salinda, show, out.

Winner--B. f. by Lamplighter--Ada Ban.
Went to post at 2:45. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Sister Sarah, at home in the going and best on any track, won as her rider pleased. Dave Sommers showed the most early speed but tired in the stretch. Leflare was weakly ridden and with vigorous handling would have given the winner an argument. Rose of Red can do better.
Scratched--28679 Juvenile, 109; 28781 Concertina, 101; 28742 Fugurtha, 98.

Winner--Ch. f. by Arctine--Morna.
Went to post at 3:16. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Sue Johnson in her own going spreadeagled the field. Marcy ran a good race. Bengal did exceptionally well. Ben O'Fallon finished strongly. Lady Curzon seemingly found a mile too far. She was weakly ridden and did not run her race. George B. Cox can do better. So can Shamivel. Scratched--(28762) Pan Charm, 105; 28745 Harry Pulliam, 98.
Overweights--Marcy, 3 pounds; George B. Cox, 3; Shamivel, 3; Georgia Gardner, 3; Hendricks, 2. Sue Johnson, show, 1 to 2. Marcy, show, 3 to 2. Bengal, show, 1 to 2.

28819 FOURTH RACE--5 1-2 Furlongs. Purse $400. All ages. Allowances.

Winner--B. g. by Duke of Montrose--Memorial.
Went to post at 3:47. At post 12 minutes. Start poor. Won in a drive; second the same. Harry Duke was favored by the start, ran well in the going, but was doing his best at the end. Alea ran a good race and finished strongly. Miss Golightly did her best. H. S. Tobacco was practically left at the post and was used too much in the effort to get up. Velasquez can do better in the mud.
Harry Duke, show, 6 to 5. Alea, show, 2 to 1. Miss Golightly, show, 3 to 5. H. S. Tobacco, show, out. Man, show, 3 to 5.

Winner--Br. h. by Cavalier--Herschel.
Went to post at 4:26. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Swordsmen was at home in the going, went to the front when called on and won going away. George Lee was badly ridden. Kuhn let him drop out of it in the early part of the race but he finished very strong and would probably have won had he been better handled in the early stages. Wall About did his best but was taken in the heavy going to save ground. Banquo II. ran a good race. Lee Bruno can do much better in this going when a strong rider is on him.
Scratched--28803 Rochester, 109.
Overweights--Swordsmen, 3 pounds; George Lee, 2; Banquo II., 2.
Swordsmen, show, out. George Lee, show, 4 to 5. Wall About, show, 2 to 5. Lee Bruno, show, 1 to 2.
